

Riverhorse on Main
Reservations Fine Print and Disclaimer

Riverhorse on Main is excited to host your next dinner in Park City, Utah. As a precautionary measure as well as to ensure everyone has the same memorable experience, please read thoroughly the following Fine Print.

- Riverhorse on Main will send through RESY 48h and 24h confirmation texts to all existing reservations. Failure to reply may result in the cancelation of that reservation.
- All cancellations must be made the day prior to the reservation date by 12:00 PM MST in order for the reservation not to be subject to a $25/guest cancelation fee.
- For parties larger than 8, the cancelation period is limited to 48h in advance. Please refer to the Small Table Contract that you agreed to. Please note that if applicable, reductions in size of the party are still subject to the F&B minimum agreed upon.
- Park City, UT is located at 7,000 ft altitude, winter conditions are normal and heavy snowfalls are common starting with December 15h. Cancelations made due to bad weather are subject to a regular cancelation fee. Please see above.
- All guests must be present in order to be seated.
- A 15 min grace period is allotted to your reservation time for your party to be complete. Same grace period is applicable for late parties. The 15 minutes will be deducted from your allocated dining period.
- Parties that fail to join us within the 15-minute grace period are considered cancelled. A later time may be offered for dinner if the restaurant has the availability.

Reserved dining times for each party size are as follows:

- Parties of TWO – 2 hours
- Parties of THREE & FOUR – 2.25 hours.
- Parties of FOUR to EIGHT guests 2.5 hours.
- STCs - 3 hours
